II. Affidavit of Eligibility

_____ (Organization Name, which is consistent with the company name used at the time of registration, hereafter referred to as “The company”), hereby confirms that “The company” fulfills the eligibility requirements for participating in the IC Taiwan Grand Challenge (hereafter referred to as “The Award”), as outlined in III. “Eligibility” of “IC Taiwan Grand Challenge Pilot Program”.

1. Startups, legal entities, academic research teams, and persons that plan to collaborate with Taiwan’s semiconductor chip design and manufacturing industry. Applicants must meet the following criteria:
 - (1) Participants entering as companies must be startups that were established within 8 years from the date of registration. However, this does not apply to non-corporate entities, academic research teams, or individual persons.
 - (2) Startups/ legal entities/ academic research institutions/ individuals from China (including Hong Kong, Macau) or startups established by people, legal entities or other institutions of China (including Hong Kong, Macau) from a third place are not eligible for the IC Taiwan Grand Challenge.
 - (3) The source of funding must not include funds from any individual, legal entity organization, or other institution of China or any enterprise it invests in any third area, which refers to any individual, legal entity organization, or other institution of China (including Hong Kong, Macau) that directly or indirectly holds more than 30% of the shares or total capital contribution of the third-area enterprise; or having the ability to control the third-area enterprise.

2. The participant must own the intellectual property rights of the product, technology or solution or have obtained legal licensing access.
3. The participant must provide concept paper (for initial review) and deliver a presentation (for secondary review) within the designated time. The content of the concept paper includes the core technology, situations that have been solved or verified so far, the business model to be developed, market expansion plans, etc. The participant must submit a pitch video of no longer than 3 minutes, along with other supporting materials.
4. Participants who have previously won awards in the IC Taiwan Grand Challenge are not eligible for rewards in this competition. However, this restriction does not apply if the project leader is different from the one in the previous competition, especially for legal entities or academic research teams.
5. Should The company fail to meet any of the eligibility requirements, The company unconditionally accepts to forfeit its place in the competition at the request of the organizer; if such violations are found after The company wins an award, The company agrees to unconditionally forfeit all awards and return the monetary prizes to the organizers.
